

As the end of summer approaches I am thankful for late blooming flowers, to carry on with color until the first frost puts everything down for the winter. These late blooming flowers were the inspiration for this fabric line.

Just as summer is waving its final goodbye, Late Bloomers will arrive in stores with a pop of subtle color mixed in with the warm golden brown tones of fall. Prints and plaids in warm colors of muslin, brick red, teal, bronze and walnut stitched into your projects are sure to be as pleasing as late bloomers in your garden.
